I have just belatedly seen your editorial of May 14th, "New CIA Director Offers Good Image." I very much appreciate your kind remarks about me and what we are trying to do here at CIA. More than that, I appreciate your giving us a chance to tell it like it is.

It is my objective to make more information about what we do and the products of our analyses available to the media and the public. It is my hope that all members of the Fourth Estate and other citizens of our nation will receive that information and data in the same positive spirit you have shown. I know the American people will be as proud of the outstanding members of the CIA as I am.

Yours sincerely,

/s/ STANSFIELD TURNER
